ELEVEN COURSE

BE OUR

GUEST

Guest is God, a sanskrit term taken from the Hindu Scriptures, sets the tone and dynamics of how a guest should be treated by the host.
No less than God!

A mantra from Ancient Sanskrit Scriptures says:
मातृदेवो भवः, पितृदेवो भवः, आचार्यदेवो भवः

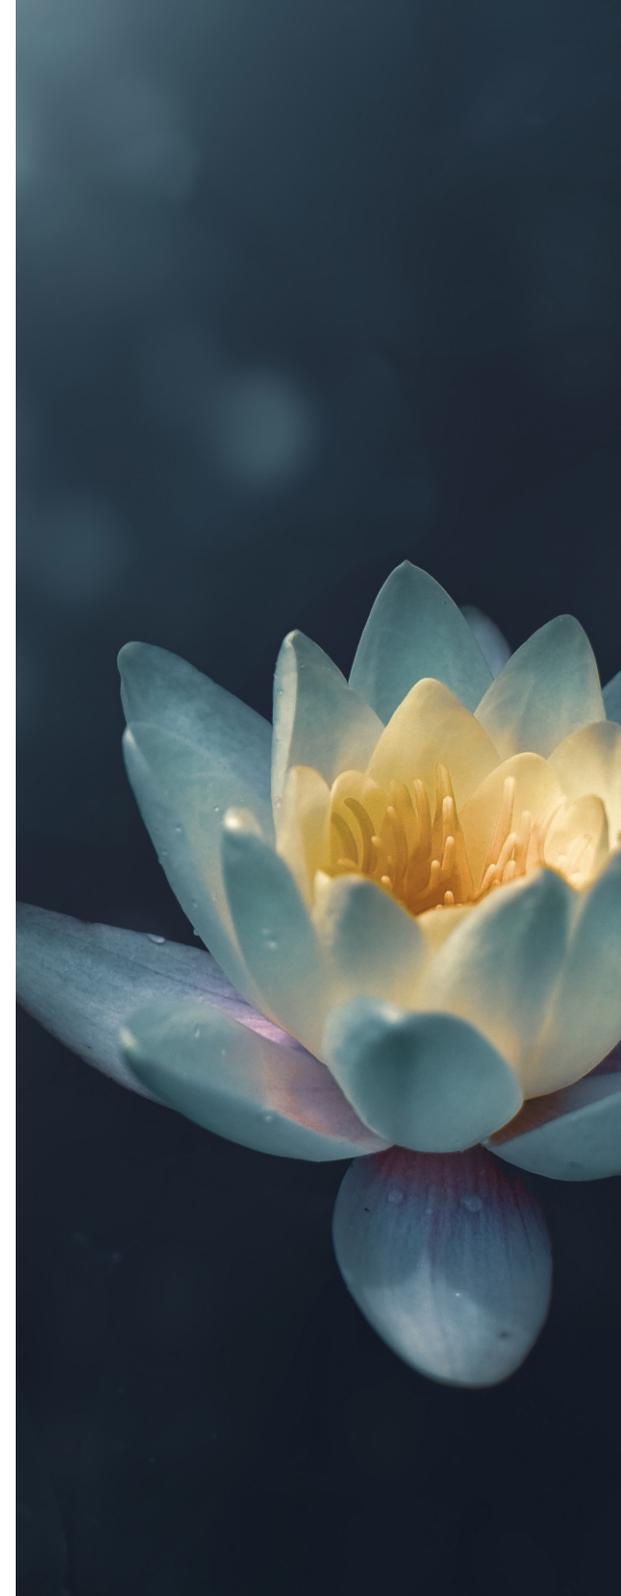

आतिथिदेवो

भक्तः

It literally means “be one for whom the Mother is God, be one for whom the Father is God, be one for whom the Teacher is God, be one for whom the guest is God.

A Godly guest must be welcomed warmly, in one’s home and in one’s heart, given a seat of honour, heartfelt offering made, and attention showered till the guest is satiated and leaves with happy memories with every intention of coming back.

And that is where our positioning- Be Our Guest! comes from.

AMBER
— BY ELEVEN COURSE —

JOUR

NEY

Sandeep Jain of Old Delhi, with buzzing streets filled with aroma of good food, embarked on a journey to explore his unique tenacity to execute and serve vegetarian street food.

1995

The balance of flavors and quality of the food he served grew on the palates of his customers and so grew his name.

Meanwhile the family realised an increasing gap in the market for quality pure vegetarian food catering and made use of the opportunity, founding Jain Caterers.

2000

Jain caterers eventually ventured into wedding catering, providing quality vegetarian cuisines and thus starting a grand and passionate journey of flavors, called Eleven Course.

2014

A two decade culinary experience gave them support to open a restaurant, carrying forward the rich legacy of Jain Caterers.

So, Eleven Course Restaurant started with an aim to provide unparalleled services in a fine dining environment, combined with their traditional hospitality that sets them apart.

While the Signature service offers the highest quality, expertise and elegance to make the clients' event a memorable one, a fully customizable premium service, Club Class is born to curate an event with culinary expertise and personalised luxury with a truly bespoke experience.

With Rituals & Amber, we bring tailored gifting and destination experiences to make every special moment an everlasting memory.

Masala Potz, born from Jain Caterers' esteemed legacy, presents premium Indian cuisine, fusing tradition and innovation to create a rich culinary journey that delights with impeccable flavors and presentation.
